Conference website: https://msa.org.au/conferences/45th-msa-conference-melbourne-2022/
Deadline for Proposals: Monday 16 May
Proposal Outcome: Friday 1 July

The 2022 MSA conference will be held online and welcomes papers on any topic of music research.

We note that it will take place concurrently with the 1st Symposium of the ICTM Study Group on Indigenous Music and Dance and the 21st NRPIPA Symposium on Indigenous Music and Dance (see Call for Papers). It also coincides with the International Day of People with Disabilities on 3 December 2022.

All presenters must be current financial members of the MSA at the time of registering for the conference (https://msa.org.au/).

Updated information (including details of keynote speakers) will be provided on the conference website as it becomes available.

SUBMITTING A PROPOSAL
After considering the following information, please email your proposal (as an attached MSWord file), with the subject heading 'MSA Conference Proposal,' to Liz Kertesz at msaconf2022@gmail.com by Monday 16 May.
PRESENTATION FORMATS
FORMAL CONFERENCE PAPERS: 20 minutes + 10 minutes for questions and discussion
LECTURE RECITALS/DEMONSTRATIONS: 20 minutes + 10 minutes for questions and discussion
PANELS (up to 4 participants): 90 minutes
THEMED SESSIONS (up to 4 participants): 120 minutes
SUBMISSION GUIDELINES
Proposals for individual presentations should include the following:
- paper title,
- abstract of no more than 250 words,
- name of the presenter,
- a short biography of less than 100 words,
- four keywords,
- institutional affiliation if applicable.
- Panels & themed sessions: please provide the information listed above for each presenter PLUS title and abstract/s for panel/session as a whole. Panel proposals should include a plan for how the 90 minutes will be used.

As we have no host institution for our conference this year, we would be grateful if you would consider making a donation to the MSA via https://msa.org.au/donate/
